DETAILED ACTION

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species I, drawn to identifying an object using two resolution image processing, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraph 0004, and defined by claim 1 and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 299 (Image Transformation or Pre-Processing, Raising or Lowering the Image Resolution).

Species II, drawn to identifying an object using image using segmentation, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraph 0005, and defined by claim 10 and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 173 (Image Segmentation).

Species III, drawn to identifying an object using image using large scale processing and resolution comparison, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraph 0006, and defined by claim 17 and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 190 (Feature Extraction).

Species IV, drawn to identifying an object using image using small scale processing and filtering, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraph 0007, and defined by claim 22 and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 199 (Pattern Boundary and Edge Measurements).

Species V, drawn to identifying an object using image line extraction, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraph 0008, and defined by claim 27, and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 193 (Feature Counting).

Species VI, drawn to identifying an object using small scale processing, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraph 0009, and defined by claim 38, and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 202 (Linear Stroke Analysis).

Species VII, drawn to identifying an object using small scale processing and line comparison, identified as a separate embodiment by the specification at paragraphs 0010 - 0012, and defined by claims 41, 47, and 48 and its dependent claims. This subject matter is classified in class 382 (Image Analysis), subclass 203 (Shape and Form Analysis).

The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

2. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
